

Membership is free and open to anyone with support needs, including:

- Older people
- Anyone living with a disability or impairment
- People with mental health needs
- People on direct payments, those who receive personal budgets and those who fund their own care and support
- Informal and family carers, including same sex partners

We also welcome support from other organisations and individuals who support our values and ways of working.

A core group of full members oversee the management of LIL and the day to day running of the organisation on behalf of the membership.

We rely on communication with our members to set the priorities for disabled people in Lincolnshire and to finding user-led solutions such as developing a peer support network that members can access for information, advice and mutual support.

Membership Form

Welcome to Lincolnshire Independent Living we are a membership organisation run by and for people with disabilities, where only disabled people have full voting rights.

We aim to....

- Use the social model of disability to empower people
- Promote peer support and self help
- Reduce discrimination
- Provide advice and support
- Help people to understand their rights
- Maximise choice and control for people with disabilities
- Develop user led solutions that overcome barriers to independent living

It is important that we have a diverse and representative membership of disabled people in Lincolnshire. Our members' views are fundamental to deciding what the organisations priorities are and how it fulfils its aims.

Please complete the membership form attached to become a member.
